Derrick D. Waller has been arrested in Indiana on a Murder Warrant

BROCKTON, MA- Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz today announced that Derrick D. Waller has been arrested in Indiana on a warrant charging him with the murder of Delacey Hinton which occurred in the city of Brockton in August of 2009.

On Saturday, August, 15, 2009, at approximately 0200 hours, Brockton Police came upon a male with a gun shot wound to the chest lying on the sidewalk in front of 684 Main Street, Brockton. The discovery of the victim was followed by several 911 calls. The male victim was identified as Delacey Hinton (DOB: 9-10-84). Mr. Hinton was transported to a local hospital where he was pronounced dead.

The case was investigated by the State Police Detectives assigned to the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office and Brockton Police Detectives. On Wednesday, August 19, 2009, as a result of information developed during the investigation, investigators sought and obtained a warrant, charging Derrick D. Waller, (DOB: 7-28-85), of 51 Ithica Street, Brockton with the murder of Delacey Hinton.

On Tuesday, January 18, 2011, the FBI contacted State Police Lieutenant Warmington to advise that they had received information that Mr. Waller was in the Fort Wayne area of Indiana. Additional information developed over the course of the next day provided investigators with a possible vehicle with a partial registration and the name of a street where Mr. Waller may be residing.

On Wednesday, January 19, 2011, at approximately 1900 hours, Trooper Harrington contacted Trooper Brophy of the Indiana State Police. On Thursday, January 20, 2011, at approximately 0843 hours, Indiana State Police located Mr. Waller in the second floor apartment located at 243 Woodland Ave., Fort Wayne Indiana. Mr. Waller was placed under arrest as a Fugitive from Justice for the murder of Delacey Hinton. Mr. Waller was in possession of a firearm unrelated to
